

After much deliberation, I voted to oppose efforts by Rep. Bernie Sanders to limit the ability of Justice Department investigators to gain access to library records of suspected terrorists.

Former Attorney General Ed Meese makes an outstanding argument in his Washington Times column in favor of upholding the Patriot Act. Click to read his column.

here